Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

College Avenue Student Loans LLC and College Ave Student Loan Servicing, LLC (each and both “College Ave”)

What we do

How does College Avenue protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings. We have policies limiting access to your information only to those who need it to provide services to you or us. We periodically assess new measures to protect your information.

How does College Avenue collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- pay your bills or give us your income information
- provide account information or give us your contact information
- pay us by check

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more information on your rights under state law.
